

MENLO COLLEGE

Menlo College is a small private undergraduate college that focuses on the practical arts of business in the entrepreneurial economy. A residential college in the heart of Silicon Valley, just outside San Francisco, Menlo College offers degrees in business and psychology. Menlo College's size, and its location in one of the world's most entrepreneurial and innovative geographical areas, is enabling the College to create a valuable market niche for itself locally—as well as globally—as the Silicon Valley's Business School.

About Atherton, CA

Menlo College is midway between San Francisco and San Jose in Atherton, California, on the San Francisco Peninsula. The area known as The Silicon Valley is located within the southern reaches of the Bay Area, and is home to most of the technology-industry leaders, including Google, Yahoo!, eBay, Facebook, Cisco, Apple, Oracle, Marvell, Intel and Hewlett-Packard. Coastal areas with beaches and other outdoor recreation facilities are also easily accessible from the Menlo College campus. And of course the area is renowned for its weather. Atherton is one of the wealthiest and safest neighborhoods in the United States and “The Top 75 College Cities & Towns in America” cites Menlo College in its reference of the third best area for college students.
